Thank You for your interest in sponsoring the events and programs of the Nacogdoches County Chamber of Commerce. There is a wide variety of sponsorships available and if you have any questions about the benefits, please let us know.

Alive After Five

This business after hours mixer brings approximately 150 business people together at a Chamber member's location, spotlighting that business. Attendees exchange information, distribute business cards, and enjoy fellowship and forming new relationships. Members are eligible to win door prizes, including cash jackpots that go as high as $1,000. Admission is free to members and their guests.

Benefits: Sponsoring company is responsible for any food and beverages and door prizes they wish to provide. The host will also work with Chamber staff to produce either an invitation postcard to be mailed by the Chamber or an invitation to be inserted in the quarterly mailing. Sponsors are encouraged to treat Alive After Five as a networking opportunity and have a table or other display prominently featured to promote their products or services. Publicity includes recognition in newsletter, Chamber News, and event calendar (distributed to 1,000 business contacts), the Business Digest events sidebar published in The Daily Sentinel, recognition in e-newsletter (sent to 3,200 email addresses), Around the Town, email blast to Chamber Ambassadors (approx. 300), the Chamber online event calendar, Nacogdoches.org (site receives an average of 7,000 visits per month), and public service announcements broadcast on local radio stations. The host will have up to 10 minutes at the event to welcome guests and explain the products and services showcased at the event. The Alive After Five committee will advise host so as to make the most of this exclusive monthly Chamber event opportunity. Includes "Enhanced" status in the online directory.
