Welcome to Nacogdoches, the heart of East Texas, a vibrant region teeming with natural wonders, an impressive array of educational and cultural opportunities and a diverse and growing business community. We’re known as the Oldest Town in Texas, the home of Stephen F. Austin State University and the Garden Capital of Texas. We’re proud of our history, hospitality and natural beauty, and especially of the hard-working, industrious people who make this place truly special.

As a vital hub for our community, the Nacogdoches County Chamber of Commerce provides resources and information to businesses big and small, employers, health care providers, educators and volunteers. From established local icons to exciting new ventures, the Nacogdoches business community is dynamic and spirited, and the Chamber works to create new opportunities by creating strong networks and advocating for our shared interests on regional, state and national levels. Whether you’re here for a visit or you’re looking to start your next chapter, we invite you to discover our town’s abundant treasures. Walk in the footsteps of history as you meander along streets lined with revered historic landmarks. Visit the breathtaking SFA campus, home to nearly 12,000 students. Explore the Lanana Creek Trail, which links the Ruby M. Mize Azalea garden to the Piney Woods Native Plant Center, and wander through a diverse collection of plants, from stately Japanese maples to elegant native species. Stroll through Millard’s Crossing, a collection of restored 19th century buildings, and feel the serenity and simplicity of that time.

Be sure to make time for our relaxing recreational activities, as well. Enjoy fishing, camping, hiking and boating at Lake Nacogdoches, Lake Naconiche and Sam Rayburn Reservoir. Take advantage of the thought-provoking cultural events SFA offers to the community. Quench your thirst with a local libation and kick up your heels to live music.

Take time to savor the sights, sounds, tastes and personalities that make Nacogdoches unique. This is an extraordinary town with a lot of great people and a lot of great stories. We hope yours becomes one of them!

Best wishes,

Dr. Todd A. Brown
2021-2022 Chairman of the Board of Directors
Nacogdoches County Chamber of Commerce

“The Nacogdoches County Chamber of Commerce is an invaluable nexus for local leaders, educators, businesses and volunteers. If it involves teamwork and communication, the Chamber is right in the thick of it.”

REAL MONEY. REAL DECISIONS. REAL-WORLD EDUCATION.

The Nelson Rusche College of Business is driven by our Learn, Launch, Lead mission. We consistently create innovative initiatives and increase student engagement with industry professionals. The Mast Student Investment Roundtable provides students with hands-on experience in managing an equity portfolio of hundreds of thousands of real dollars provided by the SFASU Foundation. As we prepare students to successfully meet the challenges of tomorrow’s business environment, SFA is leading by example.

staff, board members and volunteers are busy year round. These are just a few of their programs. Get involved today!

Advocacy & Public Affairs: This committee helps to promote public policy initiatives that will help position Nacogdoches County to prosper.

Alive After Five: This after-hours business mixer brings people together at a Chamber member’s location to spotlight that business.

Ambassadors: This group is the public relations arm of the Chamber, providing ribbon cutting, grand opening and groundbreaking services and support.

Business Development: The Business Development Series assists in educating businesses on current best practices, providing opportunities for professional development and delivering up-to-date information on relevant topics.

Chamber First: This initiative encourages chamber members to do business with other Chamber members, supporting the businesses that put resources back into our community and share our vision for Nacogdoches County and East Texas. Don’t just make a purchase — make a choice!

Education: These programs, administered by the Nacogdoches County Chamber Foundation, enhance the quality of life for individuals of Nacogdoches County by linking business, education, economic development and the community to support leadership, academic growth and workforce readiness.

Eggs & Issues: This monthly breakfast meeting features high-profile speakers and informs the business community of issues vital to their success.

Government Affairs Committee: This committee monitors state, local and federal issues that are important to the community. They host Nacogdoches/SFA Day in Austin and the Lone Star Legislative Summit in Nacogdoches and communicate with elected and appointed officials.

Leadership Nacogdoches: This nine-month training is a Nacogdoches County Chamber Foundation program that develops new leaders in our community. Participants learn about the driving forces and services in Nacogdoches while developing personal strengths and valuable skills.

Member Success Orientation: This initiative explains Chamber programs and benefits to new and prospective members, highlighting the tools available for maximizing a Chamber membership.

Nacogdoches Chamber Stakeholder Call: This video conference brings community leaders together through an online format for brief, regular reports in their respective areas. Special guests are invited to deliver presentations that address items of interest for the business community.

Retirement Marketing & Recruitment Committee: This group assists in marketing Nacogdoches as a premier retirement community.

SFA-Chamber Connection: This committee includes special programs such as Business Internships and hosting the Paint The Town Purple Blitz. They develop contacts at SFA that can be used as resources for the business community, lead Chamber efforts in helping SFA recruit students and help businesses reach students and parents as potential customers.

Transportation: This committee coordinates efforts to improve all modes of transportation in Nacogdoches County by actively seeking increased funding from the state for local highway projects and more.

“Accredited with 4 stars by the United States Chamber of Commerce, our organization is rated in the top 3% of chambers in the entire country. Let us show you why we earned this distinction!”

¡BIENVENIDOS!

¡Bienvenido a Nacogdoches! Nacogdoches es la ciudad más antigua de Texas, la capital oficial de Jardines de Texas, y casa del Texas Blueberry Festival, el evento familiar que se celebra el segundo fin de semana en Junio.

Es en Nacogdoches donde caminara en los pasos de la historia. Texas comienza aquí. Durante siglos, las personas que llamaron casa a estos exuberantes bosques cultivaron la tierra y cuidaron los jardines que nutrían el cuerpo y el espíritu. Nuestras calles están llenas de marcas sagradas de la historia de Texas.

Tómese el tiempo para aprovechar las abundantes actividades en Nacogdoches. Seleccione entre la pesca, el esquí acuático, acampar, y pasear en barco; todo esto en el lago Nacogdoches, el lago Naconiche, o el lago Sam Rayburn. Disfrute de cualquiera de los 16 parques de la ciudad, seis canchas de tenis de la ciudad, y un rodeo o concierto en el Centro de Exposiciones del Condado de Nacogdoches.

El personal de la Cámara de Comercio del Condado de Nacogdoches, los miembros de la junta, los comités y los voluntarios, se mantienen ocupados durante todo el año promoviendo Nacogdoches. La Cámara es un centro integral de información y recursos para los recién llegados, visitantes, residentes, negocios, y personas que buscan información y orientación.

Los fondos para la Cámara provienen de negocios, organizaciones y miembros individuales que creen en apoyar y trabajar con una organización que promueva la comunidad de negocios y la economía local. El financiamiento adicional proviene de proyectos y eventos comunitarios patrocinados por la Cámara. Su Cámara de Comercio no es una división de la Ciudad, ni del Condado, ni ninguna otra entidad gubernamental.

La Cámara es una organización 501 (c) (6) sin fines de lucro de negocios y líderes comunitarios que se han unido para promover el progreso cívico, comercial, y económico en nuestra comunidad a través de los siguientes esfuerzos:

Consultas directas y recursos a negocios, organizaciones, y particulares.

Crear oportunidades para que los negocios crezcan y prosperen.

Proporcionar una multitud de oportunidades de redes, recursos, y servicios.

Funciones de patrocinio que brindan a los negocios y organizaciones la oportunidad de conocer a otros y referir aquellos que conocen a otros miembros.

Participar en el desarrollo de liderazgo voluntariado, desarrollo educativo, cooperación regional, y desarrollo económico.

Mantener alianzas a nivel local, estatal y federal, comunicar problemas actuales, coordinar foros de candidatos, enfocarse en el desarrollo de la fuerza laboral, y los problemas de calidad de vida que impactan a cada comunidad.

¿Tiene negocio o está listo para comenzar uno? Invólucrese. ¡Hagase miembro de la Cámara de Comercio hoy!

“Nuestra comunidad empresarial hispana sigue creciendo. ¡La Cámara está lista para ayudarle!”

VISION:
Leading Nacogdoches to be the ideal place to live, work, play and do business.

MISSION:
Creating an environment where business can succeed.
WORKING TOGETHER.

When we come together for a common goal, we can achieve uncommon results. We at R&K Distributors salute The Nacogdoches Chamber of Commerce for striving for a better community.

The late Gary Justice was General Manager for R&K Distributors, Inc. and an active Nacogdoches County Chamber of Commerce board member from 2000 to 2006, serving as chair of the executive committee from 2004 to 2005. The theme he chose for his year at the helm was “An Attitude of Gratitude.” After his death in 2010, the Nacogdoches County Chamber of Commerce named its annual Business Excellence Awards after Gary to commemorate the man many considered “the rock” that kept the Chamber focused and successful.
Gary Justice Business Excellence Award winners are named each year by the Nacogdoches County Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors and honored at the Annual Meeting and Membership Banquet. Honorees are proven leaders in their industries and have positively impacted the business community.

Texas has a rich and storied history with deep roots in Nacogdoches. Nacogdoches — the Oldest Town in Texas — is named for the Caddo family of Indians who once occupied the area.

Caddo Indians occupied the Nacogdoches area as early as 1200 A.D., settling along Lanana and Banita creeks, names given to these streams later by Spanish settlers. The Caddo lived in huts made of limbs lashed together and covered with grass. They gathered the natural bounty of East Texas' forests and streams and established elaborate trade relationships with other Indians.

Nacogdoches remained a Caddo Indian settlement until 1716. At that time Domingo Ramón established five religious missions and a military presidio in East Texas, including Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe de los Nacogdoches del Pilar. That was the first European activity in the area, but a mission was not a town — it was a church. The mission struggled until strengthened by the Marqués de Aguayo in 1721, but even then it endured more than prospered.

The "town" of Nacogdoches was established after the Spaniards decided that the French were no longer a threat and that maintaining the mission was far too costly. After France ceded claims to lands west of the Mississippi River to Spain in 1763, Spain's New Regulation of the Presidios required all settlers and priests in Eastern Texas to withdraw to San Antonio. Some were eager to escape the wilderness, but others had to be forced from their homes by soldiers.

Antonio Gil Y'Barbo, a prominent Spanish trader, emerged as the leader of the settlers and, in the spring of 1779, led a group back to Nacogdoches. Later that summer, Nacogdoches received designation from Spain as a pueblo, or town, thereby making it the first town in Texas. Y'Barbo was named Lt. Governor of the new town and established the rules and laws under which the city was governed. He laid out streets with the intersecting El Camino Real and El Calle del Norte as his central point. On the main thoroughfare he built a stone house for use in his trading business. The house, or Old Stone Fort as it is called today, became a gateway from the United States to the vast Texas Frontier.

The Stone Fort provided a rallying place for Anglos when they arrived illegally before 1824, or legally after the new Mexican government permitted colonization. Here, volunteers gathered for service in the Texas Revolution, the Civil War, and even the Spanish American War. Efforts to seize Texas from Spain by Augustus Magee (1812) and James Long (1819) also headquartered here. In 1835, the Stone Fort was the central focus of the Battle of Nacogdoches.

Education was a major issue facing the Republic of Texas when it was established in 1836. The citizens of Nacogdoches petitioned the new government for a charter to create Nacogdoches University and it was granted in 1845.

Like the rest of the South, Texas and Nacogdoches suffered during the Civil War and Reconstruction years, but by 1880 the town was booming.

Nacogdoches remained exclusively a farming community until the Houston, East & West Texas Railroad arrived in 1883. This helped to transform Nacogdoches into an industrial area.
Nobody Beats Our Price With Our Service

Harry’s Building Materials, Inc. has been Family owned and operated since 1955. Our Motto is “Nobody Beats Our Price With Our Service.” We as a company strive to provide our customers in East Texas with quality building products with unparalleled service.

In 1923, the Texas legislature created Stephen F. Austin State Teachers College in Nacogdoches. Designated Stephen F. Austin State University in 1968, SFA remains the most significant economic driver in Nacogdoches’ development.

Today, the city of Nacogdoches flies nine flags to represent the countries that staked claims and the movements to establish a Republic of Texas, which have transformed the city throughout its history, including:

- France (1685-1689)
- Spain (1519-1821)
- Gutiérrez-Magee (1812-1813)
- Dr. James Long (1819-1821)
- Mexico (1821-1836)
- Fredonia Rebellion (1826-1827)
- Lone Star (1836-1846)
- Confederate Stars & Bars (1861-1865)
- United States of America (1846-1861, 1865-present)
The quality put into every KZ RV means you can spend more time making memories in the great outdoors, and less time being stressed. It’s time for an adventure. Are you ready? Go. Camp. Live.
Nacogdoches offers a natural beauty and quaint ambiance that attracts visitors of all ages – from arts and entertainment to antiquing and outdoor recreation.

JUDY B. MCDONALD PUBLIC LIBRARY
1112 North St., 936/559-2970, nactx.us/library
This information hub provides books, DVDs, audiobooks, eBooks, eAudiobooks and a wide range of tools for mastering new languages. The library also offers a variety of innovative programs such as technology help and training, S.T.E.A.M. and Makerspace workshops for children, adult events for learning, and entertainment. Need to use something like a cake pan, small tools, a telescope or bike repair tools for a special occasion or one-time use? Items like these can be checked out from the Library of Things and returned after use. Cardholders also have borrowing privileges at SFA’s Steen Library.

LAKE NACOGDOCHES
10 miles west of town off FM 225
This 2,212-acre lake is a great place to catch largemouth bass, crappie and sunfish. Two lakeside parks include pavilions, picnic tables, charcoal grills, swimming areas, boat ramps, playgrounds, a disc golf course and an ADA compliant fishing and boat dock.

LAKE NACONICHE
Off Hwy 59, 12 miles northeast of Nacogdoches
692-acre Lake Naconiche gives East Texans yet another option for fishing, swimming, water sports and scuba diving. Initially stocked with thousands of largemouth bass from the ShareLunker program, Lake Naconiche is also home to spotted bass, channel and blue catfish, black and white crappie and bluegill. Recreational facilities also include accessible fishing piers, a playground, swimming area and a scuba platform.

“Nacogdoches is a storyteller’s paradise – full of history, perspective and people who dared to leave their mark. It’s our story as well as yours, and we welcome all to come share in its richness.”

Nacogdoches is a relaxing place to get away from it all, but don’t let the small-town atmosphere fool you. There’s always something going on, and some weekends your family may be hard-pressed to fit in all the activities. Here’s a month-by-month guide to the perfect Nacogdoches weekend.

JANUARY
Enjoy some family time in the great outdoors at the annual Kid Fish at Lakeside Park, and then help cram the William R. Johnson Coliseum at a Lumberjacks or Ladyjacks basketball game.

FEBRUARY
It’s a date! Stroll the brick streets and grab lunch downtown during Nac Snack Fridays, a delicious downtown event featuring food trucks and live music that takes place from 11 am - 8 pm every fourth Friday from February to October.

MARCH
Nacogdoches really comes alive in the spring. Celebrate by perusing the fresh produce and hand-made treats at the Nacogdoches Farmers’ Market, and then spend a leisurely afternoon enjoying nature’s beauty along the Azalea Trail. Wrap up your perfect Saturday with a wild night at the Nacogdoches Pro Rodeo and Steer Show.

APRIL
There’s a whole lot of beauty to behold around town this month. Bring the family for a full morning of fun activities and entertainment at the Farmers Market Spring Fling, and then pick up a few hard-to-find, “Texas tough” plants at the SFA Spring Garden Gala. Then stroll the brick streets and sip some fine wines at the annual Downtown Wine Swirl.

MAY
Take advantage of the mild mornings with a stroll along the Statue Trail, made up of nine statues throughout downtown and along Mound Street, where you will learn about influential people and events that helped shape the city’s history. Keep an eye out for Visit Nacogdoches’ Full Moon Concert Series featuring tribute bands, beginning in May and continuing through the summer.

JUNE
Summer starts scrumptiously with the Texas Blueberry Festival — the anchor event of a blueberry-sweet weekend full of activities in Nacogdoches! The Blueberry Bluegrass Concert in the Park sets a relaxing tone the night before in Festival Park. Downtown also plays host to the annual Juneteenth parade. As the temperature rises, keep the kids cool with a visit to Splash Kingdom Family Waterpark.

“Check the Chamber’s online event calendar when planning your play time. You’ll discover a variety of unique recreation experiences that Nacogdoches offers!”

JULY
Beat the heat by taking in a free movie at the Judy B. McDonald Public Library, and then enjoy some live theatre at the SFA School of Theatre’s SummerStage Festival. Make plans for a long weekend in Nacogdoches and celebrate Independence Day the old-fashioned way at Freedom Fest on July 4th in Festival Park.

AUGUST
Cool off with a dip in the clear, spring-fed pond at Camp Tonkawa Springs, a campground and RV park in Garrison, or beat the heat and sneak a little education into your entertainment by taking the kids to see a special program at the SFA Planetarium. Sample local spirits at these proud, passionate purveyors of adult beverages: Naca Valley Vineyard (9897 FM 1878, nacavalley.com); The Red House Winery (108 East Pilar St., redhousewinery.com); The Front Porch Distillery (7905 US Hwy 59 S, frontporchdistillery.com); The Fredonia Brewery (138 N. Mound St., fredoniabrewery.com).

SEPTEMBER
It’s time for football, and at SFA that means it’s time for tailgating. Students, alumni and fans mingle around the Ag Pond before home games and then cram Homer Bryce Stadium to cheer for the Lumberjacks. If you’re looking for a more soothing sound, the Sandyland Bluegrass Reunion features traditional bluegrass and gospel music.

OCTOBER
Fall means family-friendly fun in Nacogdoches. Enjoy the carnival rides, games, food and competitions at the Pineywoods Fair, and don’t miss the Ghosts of Millard’s Crossing, an annual event that finds a cast of spirits haunting the historic village, telling stories about their lives and handing out treats.

NOVEMBER
Enjoy a relaxing drive along the Fall Foliage Trail. Get in the spirit of the season at Holiday in the Pines, a shopping extravaganza sponsored by Nacogdoches Junior Forum, the International Fair Trade Market at Westminster Presbyterian Church, and Wassail Fest, where downtown merchants feature their best holiday brew.

DECEMBER
Experience an Old Fashioned Christmas at Millard’s Crossing Historic Village. The Nine Flags Christmas Festival provides several weekends worth of activities, including a lighted parade downtown, a tour of homes and more. It’s a non-stop celebration of the season that offers something for every member of the family!

The Texas Blueberry Festival presented by Tipton Ford is a delightful day of fun for all ages! This year marks the 32nd anniversary of the most delicious festival in the Lone Star State. As the only state-sanctioned blueberry festival in Texas, this annual event attracts more than 20,000 people to Nacogdoches’ historic downtown district.

Prime growing conditions make East Texas a choice blueberry-producing area, and the annual harvest peaks in early summer. In 1989, Nacogdoches residents Leon and Patsy Hallman coordinated community leaders and volunteers to plan an affordable, family-friendly event that highlights our local businesses and attractions, while celebrating and promoting the unique local industry. Today, downtown merchants, festival vendors and businesses all across the county participate in the celebration by offering blueberry-themed activities and specials all weekend long!

Thousands of pounds of fresh Texas-grown blueberries are sold right on site at the festival or you can opt for a free shuttle ride to a local blueberry farm for a pick-your-own experience.

Festival events include a blueberry pancake breakfast, pet parade, car show, bounce park, blueberry pie eating contests, cooking demonstrations, a penny press with blueberry designs, The Blueberry Cupcake Battle, Running of the Blueberries 5K fun run, a 42 tournament, a washer pitching tournament and the Blueberry Festival of Quilts. Enjoy live entertainment and tons of food, craft and product vendors that line the streets and Festival Park. To make the festival even sweeter, most of these events are free of charge!

Kick off your weekend on Friday evening in Festival Park at the Blueberry Bluegrass Concert in the Park, featuring traditional bluegrass music for the entire family. Bring your blanket! Free admission.

Proceeds benefit the Nacogdoches County Chamber’s various community and business development programs. Head over to TexasBlueberryFestival.com for up-to-the-minute information.

"Thousands come to Nacogdoches for the Texas Blueberry Festival. For some, it’s a standing tradition. For others, it’s the first introduction to our town and local businesses."

City of Nacogdoches Parks & Recreation
936/559-2960, nactx.us
Nacogdoches proudly boasts 20 city parks encompassing more than 389 acres. Wooded, open grasslands, small ponds and recreational equipment—swings, slides, spray station, pavilions, trails, disc golf courses—offer many outdoor activities for people of all ages. The Lanana Creek hiking and biking trail runs from the Clint Dempsey Soccer Complex all the way to the north loop and follows Lanana Creek for three and one-half miles. The scenic route winds through the SFA campus and the Mast Arboretum. The Banita Creek Trail begins at Main St. and Pearl St. (the Hitch Lot) and goes north for 1.9 miles. Or, take your best friend out for some fun at Dog Park Nacogdoches. Located at Banita Creek Park, this off-leash dog park provides a place where dogs can socialize and exercise in a safe, clean and well-maintained fenced-in area.

Piney Woods Country Club
936/569-9821, pineywoodscountryclub.com
This hilly course first opened in 1926, and locals say it has “the best greens in the state” which vary in undulation with speeds determined by the seasonal weather conditions. Most of the fairways on this 18-hole championship course are tree-lined, and all are bordered by a standard cut of rough. The course features 6,187 yards of golf from the longest tees for a par of 72. The course rating is 69.5, and it has a slope rating of 125. The PWCC campus also includes a pro shop, locker rooms, swimming pool, bar, restaurant and event facilities which can host up to 200 people.

Woodland Hills Golf Club
936/564-2762, woodlandhillsgolfclub.com
Designed by Don January, the Woodland Hills golf course opened in 1971. January used the natural rolling hills and tree-lined fairways to create a challenging layout for both the seasoned and the recreational golfer. The 18-hole championship course features 6,620 yards of golf from the longest tees for a par of 72. The course rating is 72.6, and it has a slope rating of 133. The pro-shop is fully stocked, and the driving range is a great place to warm up before hitting the course.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES
Retirees who are interested in sharing the knowledge and skills they’ve acquired or who want to try something new will find an abundance of volunteer opportunities available. Through our numerous non-profit agencies, medical and educational facilities, historic sites, cultural and civic organizations, and religious institutions, retirees can choose to work with and for just about any age group or cause.

WORSHIP
Nacogdoches is home to a wide variety of worship centers. See a list of member churches on page 78.

With a combination of large businesses and a vibrant, historic downtown, Nacogdoches boasts a thriving and diverse economy. The workforce is a dynamic compilation of college graduates, skilled laborers and dedicated citizens. Nacogdoches prides itself in the diversity of its business sizes, where entrepreneurs of all levels can succeed.

Businesses benefit from a well-trained workforce in the area. With over 65,000 county residents, and nearly 12,000 students enrolled at Stephen F. Austin State University, Nacogdoches County offers a highly diverse and well-educated workforce. More than 25% of residents hold a bachelor’s degree or higher. More than 315,000 people reside within Nacogdoches and its five neighboring counties, with a median age of 30.6 in Nacogdoches County.

Nacogdoches continues to rank in the top Texas counties in agricultural production, with the poultry, cattle and timber industries having served as the foundation of the local agricultural economy for decades. Nacogdoches County ranks 2nd out of 254 Texas counties for chicken broilers and 3rd in egg and poultry production, and consistently ranks in the top 10 counties for timber production.

Manufacturing plays a major role in our local economy, with plants producing a wide array of products, such as bronze valves, electric transformers, giant flanges, plastic containers, high-efficiency vehicle engines, customized luxury motor homes, heavy-duty trailers, poultry coops and animal food products. Education, healthcare and retail businesses complete the list of top employers in the area.

With some of the fastest internet speeds in the country and a high quality of life, Nacogdoches is a place for tech sector companies and employees to escape the traffic and high costs of metro areas.

Stephen F. Austin State University plays an enormous part in the success of Nacogdoches. SFASU continues to make upgrades to the university campus, including a new athletic performance facility and several other innovative projects, demonstrating a commitment to lasting growth.

Nacogdoches Economic Development Corporation (NEDCO) works to bring new businesses and industries to the area and to help existing local businesses grow and prosper. In addition, NEDCO works with the Small Business Development Center at Angelina College to offer assistance to prospective entrepreneurs in developing and refining successful business plans. For more information, visit nedco.org.

Accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, SFA is highly ranked by U.S. News and World Report and has been recognized as a 2021-22 College of Distinction. The university meets the changing needs of almost 12,000 students and is credited with one of the top time-to-degree rates in Texas.

Poised to be the model of the new American university – one that is nimble, entrepreneurial, student-focused and comprehensive – SFA pioneers innovation in both course delivery and program options. SFA offers more than 120 undergraduate areas of study, 40 master’s degrees, and doctoral programs in education, forestry and school psychology, as well as 32 fully online degree programs. A wide variety of research options for undergraduate and graduate students include structured and creative projects and faculty-led research opportunities.

An aviation sciences initiative took flight at SFA in 2021, allowing the first class of “Flying Jacks” to take to the air in state-of-the-art planes with advanced equipment, including Federal Aviation Administration-approved full-motion and fixed-flight simulators. Program graduates will be qualified to become commercial pilots and prepared to serve as private pilots or in management positions with airlines, airports and private companies.

East Texas residents enjoy year-round access to SFA’s exciting athletic events, fine arts performances and guest speaker lectures. Students participate in various community service outreach projects like The Big Event, giving them the chance to partner with Nacogdoches neighbors and organizations. The SFA Alumni Association stays connected with more than 116,000 alumni and friends through reunion and anniversary programs.

SFA continues to embody the spirit of Texas, celebrating traditions while helping students reach their potential in a changing world.

“We maintain and manicure more than 500 acres of city property. For me, it’s a pleasure. I grew up in Nacogdoches, I love this community and I take pride in helping keep it beautiful.”

Tommy Stanley
PARKS SUPERINTENDENT

POWERED BY
The City of Nacogdoches
the oldest town in Texas
Not only is Nacogdoches a beautiful and friendly place to live, it is also a safe and well-protected community.

NACOGDOCHES POLICE DEPARTMENT
Within the City of Nacogdoches, the Nacogdoches Police Department (NPD) provides the best law enforcement protection possible by maintaining highly trained personnel through continual educational programs. NPD has a staff of 85 — 59 officers and 26 civilians. In addition, Nacogdoches is served by 24 licensed peace officers in Stephen F. Austin State University’s police department, and six police officers, a K9 officer, two civilian truancy officers, a sergeant and a chief on the Nacogdoches Independent School District’s force. The Nacogdoches City-County Consolidated Communication Center is located at the NPD and is the 911 public service answering point for all city and county residents.

One very important service of the NPD is the Life Saver Program, created to assist the Nacogdoches Treatment Center and Alzheimer’s Association. This program maintains a database of individuals who suffer from dementia and/or Alzheimer’s and allows the police department instant access to information for those individuals in case they become lost.

NACOGDOCHES COUNTY SHERIFF’S DEPARTMENT
The Sheriff’s Department is charged with maintaining public safety within Nacogdoches County. The department is staffed with 34 deputies and 16 reserve deputies.

NACOGDOCHES FIRE DEPARTMENT
The Nacogdoches Fire Department has a full-time professional staff of 58 uniformed firefighters, two civilians and numerous volunteer support personnel assigned to five fire stations strategically located throughout the city. Nacogdoches County has 16 volunteer fire departments. Nearly 225 volunteers protect outlying communities.

NACOGDOCHES CITY GOVERNMENT
The City of Nacogdoches has a council/manager form of government. The elected city council members set the policies for the operation of the municipal government. The administrative responsibility rests with the city manager, who is appointed by the city council. The city council consists of five members — a mayor, who is elected at large, and four council members who are elected by district. City Council meetings are held in City Hall the first and third Tuesdays of each month at 5:30 pm. 936/559-2500, nactx.us.

NACOGDOCHES COUNTY GOVERNMENT
Nacogdoches County government is administered under a commissioners court system. The five-member court is comprised of the county judge and four commissioners. The county judge is elected at large and the commissioners are elected by precinct. The county commissioners meet in the County Courthouse every other Wednesday at 10 am. 936/560-7755, co.nacogdoches.tx.us

Nacogdoches has a thriving medical community that offers a complete continuum of care. From emergency medicine to family practice, surgery and rehabilitation, the best care possible is available right here at home in Nacogdoches!

NACOGDOCHES MEMORIAL HOSPITAL
Nacogdoches Memorial Hospital has grown from simple beginnings as a 28-bed neighborhood hospital in 1928 to a 231-bed healthcare system serving all of Deep East Texas and is the region’s only Level III Trauma Center. The Lion Star Group took over ownership of Nacogdoches Memorial Hospital in 2021 and plans to expand services, including bringing back open-heart, vascular and orthopedic trauma surgery.

We’re working hard to change the face of healthcare for every generation of every East Texas family, in good times and bad, from birth through geriatric care, from diagnosis to recovery. Our outstanding team combines compassion and kindness with the latest technology and advanced treatments to deliver the care you need, where you need it and when you need it most. We are proud to have touched the lives of our friends and neighbors so many times and in so many ways throughout the years.

Since 1928 we have been one of the threads connecting families, friends and neighbors and making Nacogdoches a better place to live. That has always been our goal and it will continue to be our focus. We are Nacogdoches Memorial Hospital. Where people come first.

For a complete look at Nacogdoches Memorial Hospital, visit nacmem.org. Nacogdoches Memorial Hospital is located at 1204 Mound St. For information, call 936/564-4611.

NMC HEALTH NETWORK
For the 12th consecutive reporting period, Nacogdoches Medical Center, the hospital anchor of NMC Health Network, has earned an “A” grade for patient safety from The Leapfrog Group, a nationally recognized organization dedicated to hospital performance improvements. NMC received the “A” rating in Leapfrog’s Spring 2021 Safety Score, demonstrating the hospital’s commitment to delivering safe, high-quality patient care.

NMC is the only hospital within 100 miles to receive an “A” for the 12th consecutive reporting period.

“Every day, and at every level in our organization, we remain highly-focused on creating an environment that embraces safety and quality,” said Dr. Charles Thompson, Chief Medical Officer. “Our staff has worked diligently to implement nationally recognized benchmarks and best practices that have dramatically improved the environment of care.”

Other recent accomplishments include:
• Voted Best Hospital, Best Emergency Room, Best Place to Have a Baby, Best Outpatient Therapy and swept the Best Nurse category by readers of The Nacogdoches Daily Sentinel
• Primary Stroke Center Certification and the Gold Seal of Approval from the Joint Commission and the American Heart

“Healthcare is a high priority in our community. We work together to provide the best care possible for all.”

The Nacogdoches County Hospital District was formed to provide health care services to the residents of Nacogdoches County, regardless of an individual’s economic status or ability to pay. Led by an elected board, the organization manages sales tax revenue generated to provide indigent care in our community. Nacogdoches County Hospital District’s outreach includes emergency medical services, the Nacogdoches Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, Healthy Nacogdoches Coalition and the Nacogdoches Memorial Hospital Foundation.

The Nacogdoches Treatment Center
119 Hughes St., 936/569-7173
The Nacogdoches Treatment Center is a non-profit organization dedicated to enriching the lives of individuals who have Alzheimer’s/Dementia and the families who support and care for them. The Treatment Center offers a highly unique Alzheimer’s Day Activity Program – four hours a day, five days a week – which includes activities that promote memory function, self-esteem and social interaction in a safe, stimulating environment. The program is designed to provide constant supervision and attention to clients who participate in activities such as light physical exercise, word and trivia games, music, singing, bingo and simple art projects. The Treatment Center also hosts an Alzheimer’s/Dementia Support Group, which meets at noon the last Thursday of the month. Group discussions provide support and comfort to caregivers who have family members with these debilitating diseases. Bi-annually a nine-week course is offered to caregivers on stress-management, self-care and caregiving techniques.

From emergency medicine to family practice, surgery and rehabilitation, the best care possible is available right here at home in Nacogdoches! Take a look at our Categorical Membership listings for extensive medical care services and resources in our community, starting on page 80.

If a serious fall turns into a serious fracture, you need immediate access to the best care available – the level of care found only at Nacogdoches Memorial Hospital.

Our Level III Trauma Center is backed by the resources of an entire health system, including a full spectrum of diagnostic imaging capabilities, orthopaedic specialists and a 30,000-square-foot world-class surgery center right on site, should you need them.

In fact, our ER team is better equipped than ever before to provide exceptional patient care to every generation of every East Texas family.

We’re Nacogdoches Memorial Hospital. Where people come first.

Certification as Deep East Texas’ ONLY Level III Trauma Center includes a commitment to:

- Retain a trauma surgeon on hospital staff, 24 hours a day, seven days a week
- Offer general surgery
- Keep dedicated ER physicians in house, 24 hours a day
- Have anesthesiologists and other specialists on-call and promptly available
- Have nursing care standards that are up-to-date for trauma
- Offer 24-hour lab services
- Maintain an intensive care unit
